The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of P.B. College in association with the department of Accountancy organized a mandatory 1 day induction programme on 02.11.2019 in the auditorium hall. This programme was designed specifically for newly admitted undergraduate students to familiarize them with various aspects of college life. Its objectives included raising awareness about opportunities within the college, facilitating students' adjustment to the college environment and its traditions, acquainting them with available resources, and instilling the values and ethos of P.B. College.

Furthermore, the programme aimed to strengthen the student-faculty relationship, foster social interaction among peers and between students and teachers, and introduce students to the support services offered by the college. Overall, the induction programme aimed to ensure that new students felt welcomed, well-informed, and supported as they embarked on their academic journey at P.B. College.
